Dear Parents, Students and Friends of Cheltenham Primary School

What a beautiful start to the week as our entire school walked to St Matthews’ church for our annual Christmas service. A wonderful message was imparted to the children by Father Ron White that promoted the spirit of giving, kindness and compassion. As a school the children sang the selected Christmas Carols so sweetly. A highlight for me was Rad V’s solo with our Preps and the readings by our School Captains, Lachie and Beth. It was lovely that so many parents, friends and family were able to attend to share this moment that marked both an ending and a beginning - our Year 6s final service as they prepare to leave us for secondary school and our Preps first service, as they complete their first year at Cheltenham.

We are rapidly approaching the highlight of the week and year, the celebration of our 160 years in education and Children’s Art Expo, Friday December 4 (4.00pm to 9.00pm).

Many thanks to Carol Kozlowski for her tireless efforts throughout the year ensuring that all children have an extensive collection of artworks for display; planning an engaging range of art activities for children to enjoy throughout the evening; organising the displays in our BER building.

Thank you to our extraordinary staff at CPS: setting up the fencing throughout the BER for the display, assisting with the display of artworks, designing promotional flyers, wrist bands for pre-payment, baking cookies in the kitchen classroom, setting up marquees and seating. To our administration team who work so efficiently in the background on the myriad of tasks required for a significant event such as this: accepting and receipting payments, preparing floats, assisting with publicity and marketing. Also to PTFA for their support to sell the craft works; organising the catering options and helping set up displays. Thank you to Helen Griffiths, for her effort facilitating the range of pop-up musical performances which I am sure will provide many memorable moments for family and friends.
A picture tells a thousand words...I conclude today with some photographs of some of the silent auction items available on the evening, painted by our talented children. We look forward to seeing you on Friday.

Regards,

Bronwyn

Acting Principal
