Dear Parents, Students and Friends of Cheltenham Primary School

What a magnificent way to finish another extraordinary year at CPS with our annual Carols Evening on Monday which was “sitting room only”. It is wonderful that as a school community so many of you were able to come together to mark the commencement of the holiday season and the traditional ending of our school year.

Our children entertained us all with enthusiasm and joy; performing a blend of traditional and modern Christmas Carols. Our sincere appreciation to Linton Gellatly (father of Maggie) and his colleague, Lachlan, who generously provided us with the staging and high tech sound system at no cost to the school. This made absolutely all the difference to the children’s performance. I am happy to share that one of our new Prep 2016 families attended on Monday and has offered us large viewing screens for next year. It looks like our Carols Night might become the “new Glastonbury” for Cheltenham! I would also like to acknowledge the efforts of our Performing Arts Specialist, Helen Griffiths, who works so tirelessly to facilitate this highlight for our school, every year.

While last week’s Graduation was a highlight, today’s school assembly from my perspective was even more as we came together as a community for a final farewell to our Year 6 students and their families who have contributed so richly to our school over the years. Also, to say farewell to those members of our teaching staff who are moving on from Cheltenham Primary School.

Alana Gadsby who is one of the warm and approachable ‘faces of our school’ in our Prep team has been successful in gaining a position at Hampton Primary School for 2016. We wish her continued success and thank her for considerable contribution to Cheltenham: through the Student Representative Council, Runner’s Club, Premier’s Reading Challenge, amongst so many others.

I would like to wish all our school family at Cheltenham (staff, children and families) a Merry Christmas and happy holiday season. Thank you for all your support throughout the year. I hope that we all have the opportunity to enjoy spending time with family and friends over the summer holiday break.

On behalf of all the staff at CPS, we look forward to seeing once again, January 28, 2016, relaxed and happy for another engaging school year, delivering outstanding educational outcomes for all children.
